

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Spring/Summer/Fall 2023 Semesters

Gain real-life experience in the fields of POLITICS - MARKETING - COMMUNICATIONS for various projects ranging from POLITICAL CAMPAIGNS TO MEDIA CONTENT CREATION

Interns will work in teams on projects in various capacities with the goal of advancing conservative causes. These internships are open to all. Project positions will be based on merit. However, opportunities are available for any level of experience and ability. Interns will be assigned to a project administrator.

SCAN TO APPLY

QUALIFICATIONS A PLUS:

PowerPoint, Word,
Excel, Audio/Visual,
Design Software,
Creative Writing,
Social Media,
Video Creation,
Event Planning,
Volunteering

PROJECTS MAY INCLUDE:

- Develop a strategy, with goals and objectives, for what a Conservative Program looks like for Johnson County, including creating a mission and vision statements
- Develop a brand, including name and logo, for the program
- Create targeted campaigns, including print media, that energizes young people to get involved in voting and community service
- Build effective presentations that can be used for training young volunteers and educating young voters
- Creative writing on specific topics, e.g., "Why is voting important?", "How do elections work?", etc.
- Polling of young voters to understand their views of local politics
- Capture content at meetings and events for publishing
- Monitor and publish content to social media accounts for the program, and report on analytics
- Create and publish creative political videos for local audience
- Attend quarterly volunteer meetings and monthly Steering Committee meetings and provide updates to the organization
- Support the Organization during quarterly volunteer meetings and assist with Audio and Visual components for record and live streaming
- Help organize and participate in block-walking and voter registration events before elections
- Participate as an election clerk or watcher during election season (Paid positions)
- Participate in fundraising events for the organization

www.JCRVTX.com

LOCATION:
Johnson County Republican Party
210 S. Main St.
Cleburne, TX 76033

BENEFITS:
Practical experience with local politics
Flexible Schedule
Gas cards - Lunches provided